

Great Neck Community School Parent And Child Class for Two-Year-Olds

Great Neck Community School announces a continuation of its class for young 2-year-olds and their accompanying adult. The class will meet twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. You can sign-up to attend both sessions or simply join us once each week to explore the wonderful world of the "nearly two-year-old." Your child must be 18 months by Oct. 1 to participate. Classes will begin Thursday, Oct. 5, and run for 14 weeks ending the last week of January 2010. The purpose of Circle of Two is for toddlers to experience social interactions in a safe and nurturing environment while giving parents an opportunity to enjoy their child in a classroom setting. Each week, parent and child will explore a project together, enjoy hearing a story with new friends, come together to share a snack and, of course, discover how wonderful we are as we play with our peers. Parents will have the opportunity to support each other and to learn what makes the nearly 2-year-old so special.

For more information about the program and to enroll please contact the director, Marc Jensen, at 482-5005 or by email at marc@gncommunityschool.org.

Great Neck Community School has been dedicated to young children and their families since 1932. At this fully accredited, non-sectarian, multicultural preschool, discovery and love of learning are paramount. Visit the school's website www.gncommunityschool.org to find out more about how they engage children in the learning process, empower them to be independent and self-assured, and to enjoy the development of friendships that may last a lifetime.
